

Scope of Work

Description of the work
The scope of work involves locating the designated container within the container yard. Subsequently, breaking the seal, opening the container, and loading the arranged vehicle/vessel are essential tasks. In instances where the goods are in a loose state and unloading becomes impractical without the necessary equipment (forklift/crane), unloading labor may be required. It is important to note that unloading may not be necessary in all cases.
Location
STELCO Head Office
Timeframe
1 year